

2010 NABE BILINGUAL EDUCATION TEACHER OF THE YEAR AWARD

To recognize the efforts that bilingual classroom teachers make on behalf of English language learners, the National Association for Bilingual Education has established the Bilingual Teacher of the Year Competition. In the past, candidates could be nominated only by one of NABE's state affiliates. Beginning with the 2006 competition, Teacher of the Year nominations may also be made by NABE Special Interest Groups (SIGs).

Award: The winner of NABE's 2009 Bilingual Teacher of the Year competition will receive a $2,500 scholarship to further his or her education or to use for the benefit of English language learner students. In addition, the winner's travel expenses will be paid to the 2010 NABE conference in Denver, Colorado where the award will be presented.

Nominations: NABE affiliate organizations in good standing and NABE SIGs are eligible to nominate candidates. Nominations should be made – and the winner will be chosen – without regard to age, sex, race, religion, or national origin. SIGs and affiliates may use any method they choose for selecting candidates, but may nominate only one candidate each. Nominees must be NABE members in good standing or they will not be considered.

Qualifications: Candidates must be exceptionally skilled and dedicated teachers in a bilingual program for pre-Kindergarten through grade twelve. Only bilingual classroom teachers who work full-time with students and have at least three years of experience qualify. Candidates must have distinguished themselves as outstanding teachers and educational leaders, and should enjoy the respect and admiration of students, parents, and co-workers. They should play active and useful roles in their communities as well as in their schools. Candidates should be poised, articulate, and willing and able to grant media interviews and make presentations. He or she should be fluently bilingual. Finally and most important, candidates must have a proven ability to inspire Bilingual and English Language Learners of various backgrounds to excel.

Presentation of Materials: As part of the nomination process, the NABE SIG or state affiliate is responsible for submitting a portfolio of materials for their candidate to be used by the selection committee in its deliberations. Materials should be typed, double-spaced, and each section should be a maximum of four pages. Videos are acceptable as supplementary material, provided that they are sent electronically. All materials become the property of NABE and will not be returned. Each nomination must be submitted electronically with the following materials, with no more than 24 total pages submitted:

- Nomination Information: a cover letter signed by a NABE affiliate officer or SIG chair and the attached Contest Data Sheet providing basic information about the candidate.
- Biographical Sketch: a narrative of no more than four pages prepared by the teacher describing his or her formative environment and the specific events or experiences that led to a career in bilingual education.

- Photograph: a photograph of the candidate for publication in the conference program. (The photo should be either a glossy print of at least 5" x 7" or a high-quality JPG or TIFF image file, no smaller than 1200 x 1800 pixels at 300 dpi.) In addition, a minimum of three photographs of the teacher's classroom should be submitted.
- Philosophy of Education: a statement of no more than four pages in which the candidate reflects on his or her commitment to the profession, including a description of the candidate's educational values and beliefs about bilingual education.
- Professional Development: a description of no more than four pages of the candidate's academic preparation and participation in professional organizations service committees, commissions, task forces, work shops and conferences, etc.
- Community Service: a description of no more than four pages of the candidate's participation in organizations, and in personal efforts to improve education and social conditions of the community.
- Recommendations: one letter of recommendation from the teacher's immediate supervisor and a maximum of five other letters of recommendation.
